

BY DAVID HUTTON, THE STARPHOENIX MARCH 7, 2012

The Remai Art Gallery of Saskatchewan will require $1.5 million more per year from taxpayers than the Mendel Art Gallery when it opens in 2015, which reflects the cost of running a much larger gallery, officials say.

Read the full article at the StarPhoenix website